

Getaway to Marin Headlands!

Getaway to Marin Headlands offers something for everyone who loves nature and conservationism. Gain a deeper understanding of and commitment to ocean life at the Marine Mammal Center while enjoying the woodland retreat of the HI-Marin Headlands hostel.

Picture It:

Nestled in a wooded setting less than 10 minutes from the Golden Gate Bridge, the Marin Headlands hostel offers a chance to get away, wind down, and enjoy the simple treasures of a coastal National Park. It's your ticket to breathtaking ocean views and trails that lead to scenic beaches. Get more acquainted with nature at the newly rebuilt, state-of-the-art Marine Mammal Center. Do the self-guided tour through the center's public areas to get an overview of marine mammal life and see the seal and sea lion patients. Or take the guided tour with an educator who will escort your group through the outdoor animal rehabilitation hospital, answering questions as you go. You may see animal care crews in action doing food preparation, medical charting and see technicians working on laboratory analyses.
